Redhill Way

BASSETT, SOUTHAMPTON, SO16 7NA

A well-presented two-bedroom detached home with garage, driveway and private gardens, set in a quiet Bassett cul-de-sac. Offered with no forward chain and scope to modernise or extend.

Positioned in a peaceful cul-de-sac in the sought-after Bassett area of Southampton, this detached two-bedroom home offers a rare combination of seclusion, convenience, and potential. With an attractive frontage, generous parking, and a well-kept garden, the property is ideal for those seeking a home they can personalise and make their own.

The ground floor welcomes you via a hallway leading to a bright lounge, separate dining room, and a functional kitchen. There is also a useful WC and outside access to the garage, which could be adapted for additional living space if desired. Large windows throughout ensure the home is filled with natural light, enhancing its warm and inviting feel.

Upstairs, the landing leads to two well-proportioned bedrooms and a three-piece bathroom suite. Each room offers pleasant views over the gardens and surrounding greenery, maintaining the sense of privacy that defines this property's setting.

Outside, the property truly excels with a well-maintained rear garden that includes a patio and designated entertaining areas – perfect for summer dining. The enclosed layout and side access add practicality, while the front of the property benefits from ample driveway parking and a garage, ensuring convenience for multiple vehicles.

Offered to the market with no forward chain, this property presents an exciting opportunity for buyers to modernise and potentially extend, subject to planning permission. Its desirable location, generous plot, and untapped potential make it an excellent choice for both home movers and investors.
