Summary

Rarely available and offered chain free, this period freehold house with original features is perfectly located on one of the most sought-after roads in E5 and offers 2,320 sq. ft. (215 sq. m.) of internal accommodation, complemented by a garden extending over 50 feet in length.

Available to view by appointment only, the property is arranged over four levels and presents a fantastic opportunity to acquire a substantial family home. Presented in excellent condition throughout, the ground floor comprises a large reception room into bay window, guest W.C., and a kitchen/diner with utility area to the rear, leading to the stunning 55-foot rear garden.

The first floor features the principal bedroom into bay window with en suite bathroom, two further bedrooms, and a shower room. The second floor offers two additional bedrooms and a separate W.C. The property also benefits from loft storage, with further potential (subject to the necessary consents) to extend into the loft.

On the lower ground floor there is an additional reception room, guest bedroom, and shower room. This level benefits from both a separate entrance and internal interconnection to the main house, making it ideal for flexible use such as a guest suite, home office, or additional living space.

Ickburgh Road is a quiet residential street moments from the wide range of bars, restaurants, and coffee houses of Clapton, Stoke Newington Church Street, and High Street, as well as being within walking distance of the wide-open spaces of Hackney Downs Park and Clissold Park.

Transport links include Clapton Station (Overground), Rectory Road (Overground), Dalston Kingsland & Dalston Junction Stations (Overground), along with a variety of bus routes providing easy access into The City and West End.
