199 Bath Road, Keynsham, Bristol, BS31 1TD

More than meets the eye, a Semi-detached house, dating back to the 1930's that offer really generous living accommodation. A great family home with scope to extend and develop into the loft void as neighbours have already done, subject to consents. We understand these properties were built originally for the workers at the local paper mill in Keynsham.

The property has a good set back from the road with a well maintained garden with a blend of flora including a Magnolia tree and a wonderful wisteria that will be full of purple blossom in the summer. There is a porch area before entering the entrance hall, where you first feel the openness of this home. To the right is a living room with a bay window and beautiful open fire place. Also from the hall you have a further reception room with doors to the rear veranda and also equipped with a feature fire place with a gas fire and wooden surround. The kitchen is a great size in a a modern style and a great range of appliance/storage space. Just behind is utility room with a WC. The first floor offers three spacious bedrooms which will accommodate lots of storage and furniture if needed. The Bathroom has a four piece suite including a wonder roll edge claw foot bath. Note the landing size which lends itself for a stairway to a loft conversion with ease. Externally the rear garden is simply a joy to be within. This starts with the veranda that allows one to enjoy the garden all year around. Its crammed with beautiful flowers, shrubs and fruit trees. There are several seating areas,, a pond with bridge over and a charming winding brick laid pathway. You will then find the garage of 6.42m x 6.30m with eave storage then another car port of 6.52m x 3.19m with parking behind on a tarmac driveway accessed via a rear lane.
