Shilton Lane

£254,500 Offers Over | Bedrooms 2 Bathrooms 1

Step inside and you are welcomed by a soft, carpeted hallway that leads you deeper into a home full of potential. There is a comforting familiarity here, a well loved space that has been enjoyed over the years and is now ready for its next chapter. The kitchen, with its wooden cupboards and tiled splashback, feels like the heart of countless meals and conversations, a space where you can already imagine breathing new life into it, tailoring it to your own taste and style.

Just beyond, the dining room reveals itself as something quietly magical. Bathed in natural light from the roof lantern above, it feels almost like dining under the sky. Morning coffees glow a little brighter here, and evening meals take on a softer, more intimate feel as daylight fades into dusk. It is a space that invites lingering, where time seems to slow just enough to savour the moment.

The lounge offers a warm and welcoming retreat, centred around a gas fire that promises cosy evenings and relaxed weekends. Large patio doors stretch across the back wall, drawing your gaze out

Tucked away along Shilton Lane, where life feels just that little bit quieter and more considered, this two bedroom detached bungalow offers something rather special, a sense of seclusion, space, and sun filled possibility that is becoming increasingly rare to find. Set behind its own private drive and framed by greenery, it greets you with a gentle charm, the kind that whispers of slower mornings, open windows, and a home that adapts beautifully to the rhythm of your life.
