Description

Stepping through the main entrance, you are welcomed into a central entrance hall which provides access to the principal ground floor accommodation. The layout flows naturally, with formal living space to one side and the main family hub positioned centrally, creating a practical yet impressive arrangement. The entrance hall also benefits from a cloakroom/WC, ideal for guests and everyday use. Stairs rise to the first floor, while doors lead through to the sitting room, bar and kitchen/diner. To the left of the entrance hall is a beautifully proportioned, triple aspect sitting room. This is a superb formal reception room, offering excellent space for both relaxing and entertaining, with French doors opening out to the garden and a stunning inglenook fireplace with wood burning stove creating an impressive focal point. Positioned adjacent to the sitting room is the bar, a stand out feature of the ground floor which adds real personality to the property. Whether used as a dedicated entertaining space, games room or informal snug, it offers excellent flexibility. The bar also enjoys access via bi-folding doors onto the rear verandah, making it especially well suited to indoor-outdoor entertaining during the warmer months. At the heart of the home is the impressive kitchen/diner. This substantial open-plan space provides a natural hub for family life, with room for cooking, dining and informal seating. The kitchen is fitted with a range of wall, base and drawer units, along with integrated appliances including a double oven, hob, dishwasher and warming drawer. There is also a Quooker hot and cold tap, space for a free-standing fridge freezer, while a breakfast bar and moveable island add further practicality and flexibility. A good-sized wine cellar provides useful additional storage, and the room offers ample space for a dining table and chairs, making it ideal for both everyday family meals and entertaining. Beyond the kitchen/diner, the accommodation continues into a spacious family room. This is a bright and generous additional reception room, ideal as a TV room, children's lounge, playroom or relaxed family space. Positioned nearby is a gym. This room offers excellent versatility and could equally serve as a home office, studio, hobby room or further reception space, depending on requirements. The ground floor also includes a bedroom complete with an en suite. This is a particularly useful feature, ideal for guests, multi-generational living or anyone seeking bedroom accommodation on the ground floor. A utility room further enhances the practicality of the layout, providing useful storage and support space away from the main kitchen.

The first floor is arranged around a central landing and provides four further bedrooms, making the property especially well suited to family occupation. The bedrooms are all well proportioned and offer excellent flexibility for family living, guests or home working. Several rooms benefit from fitted wardrobe storage, adding to the practicality of the layout, with the master bedroom benefiting from its own en suite shower room. The first floor is served by a stylish and modern family bathroom, comprising an elegant bath, separate shower enclosure, Jack and Jill sinks with storage beneath, and finished with a heated towel rail.
