The Property:

Tucked away in the heart of town, this delightful Grade II listed cottage blends historic charm with modern convenience. Believed to date back to the 15th century, the property has been thoughtfully updated and insulated throughout, offering a warm and welcoming home with a wealth of character.

Step into a spacious entrance hall with ample room for coats and shoes, leading to a generous ground floor double bedroom (Bedroom 2), which benefits from a built-in cupboard and a large under-stairs storage area.

Upstairs, the property opens into a beautifully bright and spacious living area, complete with exposed beams, a decorative fireplace, and windows that flood the room with natural light. The newly fitted open-plan kitchen is well designed, offering ample storage and workspace, with a free-standing fridge freezer, plumbing for a washing machine, and a built-in electric oven, hob and extractor. The sink is ideally positioned beneath the window.

The bathroom has also been newly fitted, featuring a contemporary walk-in shower with electric Mira unit, WC, basin, and heated towel rail. A cupboard houses the water heater serving the sinks.

The main bedroom is a generous double with a pleasant outlook, window seat, and the added benefit of a walk-in wardrobe.

The property has new carpets throughout and has been fully insulated behind the internal walls, helping it to retain warmth while preserving its original features. A large, insulated loft with ladder access provides additional storage.

An added bonus is the separate outbuilding just across the alleyway – ideal as a home office or studio. With a double-glazed door and its own kitchenette, this space previously had water connected and could easily be reinstated to serve as a utility or self-contained workspace. There is conveniently space for a WC.

Although there is no dedicated garden, a small area immediately outside the front of the property is suitable for a bistro table and chairs – perfect for enjoying a morning coffee.

This is a unique and characterful home offering flexibility, charm, and practical modern touches – ideal for buyers looking for something a little bit special.
