THE DWELLING

12 Vale View is a smart, detached house on a well regarded development, some 5 years old. There is parquet flooring to the entrance hall and on into the kitchen. The sitting room has a feature fireplace, beautifully set within a wall of bookcases and a lovely bay window overlooking the front garden.

The kitchen is a bright room with French doors to the garden and two plate glass windows flooding the room with light. As well as a full range of wall and floor units, with appliances, and an island unit as further storage or as a breakfast bar, this southerly facing room is a wonderful eat in room with dining area for the family. The separate utility room is off from the kitchen, as too the guest cloakroom and integrated garage.

Upstairs there is an expansive landing with all three double bedrooms leading from it, all of which are self contained with en suite shower or bathrooms; the principal suite having a walk through dressing area.
