Blenheim Terrace, Scarborough, YO12 7HF

Offers In The Region Of £130,000

Hunters are pleased to present this exceptional freehold top-floor apartment which offers breathtaking sea and castle views, combining modern comfort with a prime location.

The apartment boasts a stylish kitchen, a spacious and light-filled living room, and two well-proportioned bedrooms, perfect for relaxation. The contemporary bathroom is fitted with a sleek three-piece suite as well as underfloor heating. Large windows frame the stunning coastal and historic castle views, creating a truly picturesque setting. Ideal for those seeking a comfortable home with a spectacular outlook.

Blenheim Terrace is located in Scarborough, a popular seaside town on the North Yorkshire coast of England. Situated on Queens Parade, it offers stunning views over the North Bay and is within walking distance of Scarborough's sandy beaches and key attractions, including Peasholm Park and the Scarborough Open Air Theatre. The terrace is conveniently positioned about half a mile from Scarborough railway station, providing good transport links to nearby cities like York and Leeds. The area is also well-served by local amenities, including shops, restaurants, and schools, making it a desirable location for both residents and visitors. Its elevated position along the coastline provides breathtaking sea views, making it a prime spot for those seeking a mix of historical charm and coastal living.
