MUT BE VIEWED - A beautifully presented and elegant three double bedroom end-of-terrace Grade II listed Regency-style home offering an abundance of period charm and character throughout. The property boasts impressive 11ft high ceilings, sash windows fitted with secondary glazing, ceiling roses and feature fireplaces, with the current owners having done a wonderful job of enhancing and showcasing the home's original period features.

The accommodation begins with an inviting living room, complete with a working wood burner, large sash window to the front and attractive wooden shutters. To the rear is a superb refitted open-plan kitchen/dining room, fitted with a range of integrated appliances and providing an excellent space for modern family living and entertaining. From the dining area, stairs lead down to a fully tanked basement offering good head height and highly versatile space, ideal for use as a home office, family room/cinema room or guest bedroom. The ground floor further benefits from a separate utility room incorporating a WC.

On the first floor there is a modern refitted bathroom with skylight, a spacious principal bedroom with large sash window, and a second double bedroom which cleverly makes use of the impressive ceiling height with a built-in elevated study/office area, creating a bright and characterful space.

To the rear, a light filled conservatory leads out to the low-maintenance garden with artificial lawn, while the property also benefits from off-street parking to the front. The home is conveniently located on the outskirts of Hertford town centre and Hertford North station, offering excellent access to local amenities and transport links.
