This gem of a property requires viewing to really appreciate its character and charming period style. It is situated in a very enviable location with views looking out over Cardiff Bay and opposite an open recreational park. This rather lovely Victorian end of terrace 3 storey bay fronted family property is a short walk from the town centre, local amenities and Dingle Road railway station. It comprises an original Victorian era tiled porch and hallway, 2 good size reception rooms (one currently used an extra bedroom), a light filled kitchen with space for a large table and chairs, a useful utility room and a downstairs wc/shower room. To the first floor there are 3 generous bedrooms, the front one with exceptional views over the park and Cardiff Bay and a family bathroom. On the third floor there is a very large informal loft room with fabulous views over the Bay and park. There is an end of terrace side access and a larger than typical front garden and delightful well stocked rear garden. There is pedestrian lane access through gates at the end of the garden and a large outbuilding. Gas central heating, uPVC double glazing, period features and flooring throughout. Freehold.

Panelled front door to porch.
