ABOUT THE PROPERTY

A Victorian two bedroom house arranged over three floors, offering well-balanced living space, a private rear garden and a loft bedroom with excellent natural light.

Marne Street sits between some of west London's most established neighbourhoods, offering easy access towards Queen's Park, Golborne Road and Notting Hill.

This setting allows for a balance of residential calm and everyday convenience, with a wide choice of shops, cafés, green spaces and transport options all within easy reach, making it well suited to long-term living.
