This late Victorian house on Gwydir Street is located within the popular and well-served Petersfield area, a short walk to Cambridge Station, Mill Road and the historic centre. The property has been extended, altered and improved to create a practical arrangement of accommodation, retaining some attractive period features and benefitting from lots of natural light.

A private, fully enclosed side entrance hall provides access to the rear garden and ground floor accommodation. The dining room has an attractive solid wood parquet floor, open feature staircase with concealed storage cupboard beneath, a glazed door opening to the garden and links the sitting room to the kitchen. The sitting room has a sash window overlooking the front aspect, a period fireplace and bespoke recess cabinetry and shelving. The well-equipped kitchen has been refitted and provides an extensive range of low-level units and drawers, matching wall-mounted cabinets, working surfaces with an inset sink and draining unit and tiled upstands, a range of integrated appliances and tiled flooring which continues through into the inner lobby. A bathroom completes the ground floor accommodation.

Upstairs, there are two spacious double bedrooms with exposed wooden floorboards.

Outside, the rear garden is approaching 100ft in length and adjoins Mill Road Cemetery. The garden has a favourable west-facing aspect, established trees and shrubs and a useful outbuilding ideal for storage or conversion to a home working space.

Agent's Note

Please note, the property is located adjacent to the renowned Cambridge Blue pub. We advise buyers to seek mortgage advice before arranging a physical viewing.

The property is in a conservation area.

Location

Gwydir Street is a highly desirable road lying between Mill Road and Norfolk Street about 0.7 miles from the railway station and 1 mile south of Cambridge City centre (Market Square). There is a good selection of independent and local shops and restaurants on Mill Road whilst other facilities and amenities can be found in the city centre itself. Schooling for all age groups is available locally with both St Matthew's Primary School and Parkside College.
