AGENTS INSIGHT:

“This home offers far more space than expected, with a fantastic kitchen/breakfast room that truly forms the heart of the property. The snug, study and utility room create a flexible layout ideal for modern family living. Period features add warmth and charm throughout, while the usable attic provides valuable extra space. All just moments from Bovey Tracey’s shops and amenities, it’s a superb blend of character and convenience. ”

LOCATION:

This property is situated within easy walking distance to the town centre or the National Trust Parke. Known as the "Gateway to the Moors", Bovey Tracey offers a comprehensive range of shops and amenities including a health centre, library, primary school, inns and churches. The town also benefits from good sporting facilities, including a swimming pool, a sports field/ tennis courts, a whisky distillery and art galleries plus the many cycle routes including Newton Abbot, Lustleigh and Moretonhampstead. The A38 dual carriageway, linking Exeter and Plymouth to the M5 motorway is within two miles of the town and there are mainline railway stations at Newton Abbot and Exeter. The open spaces of Dartmoor lie just to the west of the town and the South Devon beaches are mostly within 30 mins driving distance.

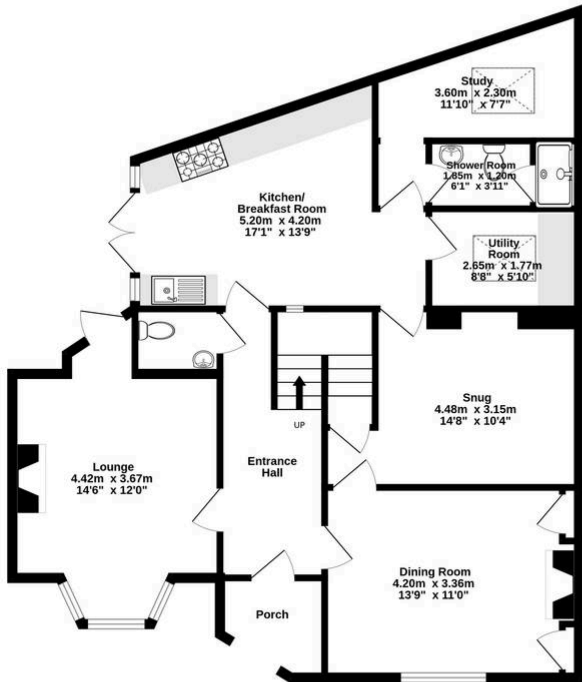

STEP INSIDE: This charming end-terrace home offers far more space than first appears, combining period character with modern comforts. The property features high ceilings, decorative fireplaces and a beautiful bay window with original Victorian folding shutters, all adding to its timeless appeal. The entrance hallway leads to a convenient cloakroom. Firstly the hallway opens to the generous living room, complete with a wood burner and the room enjoys a wonderful bay window, flooding the room with light, as well as a door opening directly onto the garden. A separate dining room sits at the front of the home complete with fitted alcove cupboards flanking the decorative fireplace. To the rear, a distinctive kitchen/breakfast room forms the heart of the home. This impressive space includes a modern fitted kitchen with excellent worktop, cupboard provision, and a ceramic sink. There is also space for a dishwasher, Fridge/ Freezer. There is ample room for a dining table beside French doors that open onto the garden—ideal for relaxed meals and entertaining. The ground floor continues into three further rooms: a study with a skylight providing excellent natural light which currently hosts as a storage room, with another downstairs WC. A utility room with space for appliances of a washing machine and tumble dryer, and a cosy snug that serves as an additional reception room—ideal for quiet relaxation or as a playroom. On the first floor, you will find three bright and generously proportioned double bedrooms. The principal bedroom features a beautiful period fireplace and fitted wardrobes that provide excellent storage. The second bedroom also enjoys a charming period fireplace, adding character and warmth to the space, while the third bedroom offers ample room for a variety of uses. The family bathroom is well appointed, fitted with a bath and an over-the-head shower, WC and wash basin, creating a practical and comfortable environment for everyday use. Across the landing, a large airing cupboard houses the hot water cylinder and provides ample additional linen storage. A ladder-style staircase leads up to a sizeable attic room, offering a fully usable and highly versatile space. The skylights frame beautiful views across Bovey Tracey.
