4 2

Set along the ever-popular Hopgrove Lane South, this extended four bedroom family home enjoys a semi-rural feel with open field views to the rear and front, while remaining extremely well connected to York, the A64 and surrounding areas. The location is particularly well suited to families, with good local schools, everyday amenities and countryside walks all close by, offering an ideal balance of space, convenience and lifestyle. Hopgrove Lane South is within close proximity to Heworth and Stockton on the forest village. as well as excellent schools and bus stops for Huntington school just down the road.

The property opens into a welcoming entrance hall which immediately gives a sense of the space on offer. From here, there are two separate reception rooms, providing excellent flexibility for modern family living. One is currently used as a bright and comfortable lounge, while the second lends itself perfectly to use as a dining room, snug, playroom or home office depending on individual needs. To the rear, the extended kitchen and dining area forms the heart of the home. This is a generous, sociable space designed for everyday family life as well as entertaining. The kitchen features modern units, ample worktop space, a breakfast island and integrated appliances, with room for a large dining table and additional seating. Double patio doors open directly onto the garden, allowing natural light to flood in and making the most of the open outlook beyond. A downstairs WC and separate utility area add further practicality.

Upstairs, the accommodation is arranged over two floors. The first floor offers two well-proportioned double bedrooms, a further single bedroom ideal as a nursery or study, and a family bathroom. The second floor dormer extension provides an excellent guest suite or principal bedroom, complete with its own en-suite and pleasant views over the surrounding countryside.
