The Bryanston, W1H

A beautifully presented two bedroom apartment with views towards Hyde Park, situated in The Bryanston, London's new landmark building designed by Rafael Viñoly Architects.

Entry to the building is via a private canopied driveway on Bryanston Street, which is staffed by a doorman. The building has 24-hour security, valet service and underground parking. A concierge service is available and the building benefits from a 25-metre indoor swimming pool, hydrotherapy pool, experience shower, sauna, steam room, relaxation areas and private treatment room. Additionally there is a residents' gym and private training rooms plus a dedicated children's club.

The property has a reception/dining room with floor-to-ceiling windows providing superb natural light, leading through to the kitchen with modern built-in appliances, marble worktops and feature LED lighting. Both bedrooms are good sized double rooms with built-in wardrobes and en suite bath/shower rooms and there is a further guest WC off the hallway.

Residents are within easy reach of Selfridges, Mayfair and the theatres and attractions of the West End, whilst there are numerous transport links from Marble Arch, Bond Street and Oxford Circus stations.
