Share of Freehold

This flexible space is perfect for those working from home or needing a London based property for the week. With a private balcony overlooking the Hertford Union Canal, Victoria Park behind and its own secure parking, it is spacious, even taking a baby grand piano. You may be a writer, a pianist, or simply wish to relax whilst watching the boats go by. This small purpose built community purchased from the Crown Estate in 2009 (hence the name Royal Victor Place) is freehold. Opposite was a pickle factory, now a gym, low rise work units allowing excellent views to Canary Wharf with Mile End Park in between and a warehouse converted to a wedding venue. On Sundays you may wish to visit Columbia Road Flower Market, or on the weekend meet with friends for brunch in Victoria Park or, a short walk past the lake and its inspiring wildlife, visit a range of niche shops and restaurants in Victoria Park Village.
