Lansdown Road
Abergavenny
£375,000

- ♥ Luxury Two Bedroom Apartment
- ♥ Grade II Listed Exclusive Development
- ♥ Beautifully Appointed Throughout
- ♥ Superb Kitchen With Island Unit

About this property

A superb two bedroom, second floor apartment situated in Grade II listed, Saxonbury House occupying a prime position on Lansdown Road a mile from Abergavenny's town centre. Saxonbury House underwent a painstaking refurbishment in 2013 to create a truly exclusive development with an emphasis on a quality rarely found on the open market whilst retaining a wealth of period features and character. A stained glass front door opens to an impressive communal entrance hall with video intercom entry, stained glass windows, and wide staircase leading up to the apartment. The property itself affords generous accommodation and has been finished to the highest standard throughout. It includes a spacious living room with a large bay window offering splendid views across Abergavenny towards the Bloreng Mountain. There is a fabulous kitchen with a range of integrated appliances and a central island unit, two bedrooms, one having an en-suite shower room, and a stylish bathroom with freestanding bath and separate shower. Stairs from the hallway provide access to two useful loft rooms (with limited head height) and a further set of stairs lead, via a sliding lantern rooflight, to a unique roof terrace with stunning 360 degree views across the whole of Abergavenny and surrounding mountains. For buyers looking for a blend of exceptional quality and character this property represents a wonderful opportunity that would suit a range of potential purchasers. Offered with two allocated parking spaces and no onward chain.

About the location

A popular market town nestled amidst the Seven Beacons with its skyline dominated by the Bloreng and the Sugar Loaf mountains, Abergavenny is known as the 'Gateway to Wales'. It is situated twelve miles from the English border and just south of the Black Mountains in the Brecon Beacons National Park. Steeped in history Abergavenny was originally a Roman Fort then a medieval walled town. It is now a market town with arguably more life than nearby Usk and Monmouth. It offers a wide range of amenities with major supermarkets, popular bi-weekly, a high street comprising of recognised chains and local department stores, leisure centre, a number of churches and Nevill Hall Hospital. The town also offers a rich and vibrant range of cultural options including the Borough Theatre which offers an all year round programme of professional and amateur events, the Chamber Music Society and the annual Abergavenny Writing Festival. Its location means that Abergavenny acts as the major transport hub for the area. The railway station allows easy access to anywhere on the rail network. The A465, Heads of the Valleys Road is one mile out of town with the M50 / M4 a further 25 minutes away. Furthermore there is a large bus station with an extensive range of routes to neighbouring towns and villages and as far afield as Cardiff.
