Manor Way

Ruislip • Middlesex • HA4 8HW

This spacious ground floor maisonette on Manor Way offers a superb opportunity for those seeking a spacious and practical home. The property features a remarkably large reception room that serves as a versatile hub for both relaxation and formal dining. A separate, well-proportioned kitchen provides plenty of preparation space, while the central hallway includes built-in storage to ensure a tidy living environment. The layout is completed by a modern three-piece bathroom suite and two comfortable bedrooms, including a generous primary double and a flexible second room perfect for a home office or guest accommodation. Externally, the maisonette benefits from its own private garden and patio area, providing a peaceful retreat for outdoor enjoyment. A significant advantage of this home is the inclusion of a separate garage, offering secure off street parking and excellent additional storage. Situated in a popular residential location with its own private entrance, this property combines convenience with a sense of privacy.
