

Lower Richmond Road, SW15

£599,950

A well-presented split-level apartment arranged over the upper floors of an attractive period building, offering bright, versatile living space and a private terrace. The first floor features a spacious reception room with high ceilings and period detailing, alongside a separate modern kitchen leading out to a private terrace ideal for outdoor dining. There is also a double bedroom and a contemporary bathroom. The top floor provides a further generous bedroom with built-in storage and additional bathroom, enhanced by skylights that flood the space with natural light.

Lower Richmond Road is ideally positioned moments from the River Thames and the green open spaces of Putney, with a wide selection of cafés, shops and restaurants nearby. Excellent transport links are available via Putney Station (National Rail) and East Putney Underground Station (District Line), providing easy access into Central London.
