The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

Chapel Cottage is a beautifully presented Grade II listed cottage located on a single-track lane in the stunning hamlet of Merrion. The property offers an abundance of character and charm boasting many unusual features including exposed beams and stonework, a mezzanine floor and original tile floors creating a warm and inviting atmosphere throughout.

The ground floor is centred around a stunning open plan living and dining area, enhanced by vaulted ceilings and a mezzanine level above, creating a wonderful sense of space and light. The living area features a beautiful fireplace with a log-burning stove. Engineered oak flooring runs seamlessly throughout this space and bespoke joiner-made double-glazed sash windows further add to its style and charm.

Also on the ground floor is a well-appointed family bathroom, complete with both a bathtub and a walk-in shower. The country-style kitchen is full of character, featuring a traditional Belfast sink, useful pantry storage, and a corner bench complete with colour matched cushions, perfect for relaxed dining or morning coffee. A second bedroom with fitted wardrobe is conveniently accessed from the kitchen, offering flexible accommodation.

Upstairs, the mezzanine level provides a unique and airy bedroom space, overlooking the main living area below and completing this delightful and characterful home.

Externally, the property enjoys mature gardens, offering a wonderful outdoor space to relax and unwind. The garden features a vegetable patch, a fire pit, and a variety of seating areas, ideal for entertaining or enjoying the surroundings. It also benefits from a separate gated entrance off the lane. A particular highlight is the self-contained garden pod, which provides additional accommodation with a double bed, living/kitchen area, and a shower room.

Further benefits include ample driveway parking, along with a storage shed and log store. The property also benefits from the efficiency of an air source heat pump, under floor heating and an EV charging point.

The rural hamlet of Merrion located within an area of spectacular coastal scenery, and the Green Bridge of Wales, Stack Rocks, St Govan's Chapel and Bosherton Lily Ponds are popular sites for visitors to the area.
