An attractive three-bedroom semi-detached Arts & Crafts Grade II Listed cottage, built in 1907 and designed by the renowned Parker & Unwin, ideally located just moments from the shops, cafés, and transport links of Temple Fortune. Rich in character and period charm, the property now requires modernisation, offering an excellent opportunity to create a beautiful home tailored to individual taste. The cottage further benefits from both front and rear gardens, enhancing its appeal and outdoor space. A rare opportunity to acquire a characterful home in a highly sought-after location. Early viewing is highly recommended.
