Set in the heart of a well-connected East Yorkshire village just three miles from Beverley, 18 Old Road is the rare kind of property where everything has already been done — and done properly. Updated throughout, move-in ready, and offered with no onward chain.

The house is much more spacious than it looks from the road. Inside, a generous sitting room flows through to a separate dining space. The spacious kitchen, utility room and bathroom have been modernised. The three bedrooms (two double and a single) are again a generous size. Both double bedrooms have fully fitted wardrobes, cupboard space and vanity units. The whole property has been maintained to an impeccable standard that's immediately obvious the moment you walk in.

Outside is where this house quietly sets itself apart. The rear garden has been cultivated with genuine care over many years: mature planting, structured beds, paved terrace and seating areas in both sun and shade throughout the day. The front is equally well-kept, with a block-paved driveway, off-street parking for multiple cars and a double garage: practical space most houses at this price point simply don't offer.

A calm, established neighbourhood; village amenities on the doorstep and Beverley's historic centre, restaurants, independent shops and Saturday market less than ten minutes away.

Whether you're buying as a couple, starting a family, or simply want more space and less noise — this one's worth a visit.

No chain. Ready to move. Viewings available now.

LOCATION

The property is ideally situated on Old Road, in the village centre of Leconfield. In our opinion, often unfairly overlooked, Leconfield offers exceptional convenience, being just 3 miles north of Beverley via a direct cycle path, and perfectly positioned on the main road connecting Driffield and Beverley. This makes for easy commutes and access to the wider region. Within the village, enjoy local facilities like the primary school and a well-used community social club with playing fields, while Beverley provides an even broader range of shops and services.
