The lounge is an inviting space, enhanced by a beautiful bay window that draws in natural light and provides the perfect setting for comfortable sofas, quiet evenings and relaxed everyday living. The kitchen is arranged in a practical L-shaped design, fitted with a range of base and wall units to support day-to-day use. Whether redesigned as a sleek contemporary kitchen or refreshed with a more traditional finish, this room offers the potential to become a stylish and functional hub of the home. Bedroom one is a well-proportioned double, offering space for wardrobes and further storage furniture without compromising comfort. The second bedroom brings welcome flexibility, ideal as a child's room, nursery or a dedicated home office, making the apartment well suited to a range of lifestyles. The bathroom comprises a three-piece suite with bath and overhead shower, w/c and hand basin, while the spacious hallway creates an excellent sense of flow throughout the apartment. Useful storage cupboards help keep the home organised and clutter-free. Although the property would benefit from refurbishment, it offers a superb canvas for buyers keen to add their own style, finish and long-term value.

Exterior

Externally, the apartment enjoys the rare and highly appealing benefit of a south-facing garden, giving the home a lovely outdoor extension to enjoy throughout the warmer months. A paved patio area provides space for garden furniture, morning coffee or relaxed alfresco dining, while the lawned section offers room for a child to play or a pet to enjoy. The garden is fenced and private in feel, creating a pleasant sense of separation and usability. Prospective buyers should note that there is a right of way for the first floor apartment residents to access their own garden, but the space still offers a valuable outdoor lifestyle rarely found with many apartments. Further enhancing the practicality of the property is the benefit of a garage, ideal for additional storage, bikes, garden equipment or hobby use. Combined with the garden, this makes the apartment an attractive choice for those seeking ground floor living with outdoor space, storage and the opportunity to personalise.
