with wall and base units, work surfaces and rear access. The first floor provides a well-proportioned double bedroom together with bathroom facilities.

Externally, the property benefits from an enclosed rear yard, providing a private outdoor space with low-maintenance appeal.

The property has also benefited from works completed under the ECO4 Grant, adding further appeal for landlords and investors.

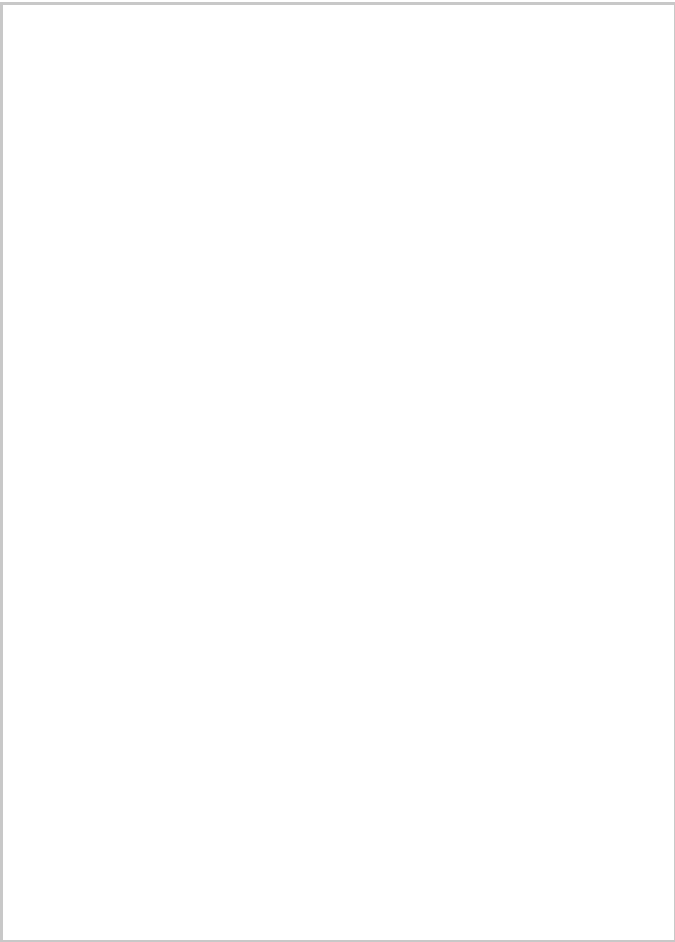

With an anticipated rental value of approximately £400 PCM, the property could generate an annual rental income of around £4,800, making this an attractive addition to a buy-to-let portfolio. The potential gross yield will depend on the final purchase price.

Located in the popular Coal Clough area of Burnley, the property is conveniently positioned for local amenities, schools, transport links and Burnley town centre.

Offering an affordable entry point into the property market with rental potential, this property is well worth consideration for both investors and owner-occupiers.
