INTRODUCTION

This three-bedroom semi-detached home in Gilberdyke has been thoughtfully updated to offer contemporary living in a convenient village location. The property features a modern kitchen and a recently installed family bathroom, alongside the comfort of gas central heating and double glazing throughout—making it an ideal choice for first-time buyers or investors.

The ground floor accommodation includes a comfortable lounge and an open-plan kitchen/diner, fitted with contemporary units and ample workspace. Upstairs, there are three well-proportioned bedrooms and a stylish, recently refurbished bathroom.

The exterior is a particular highlight; the south-facing rear garden is designed for entertaining, featuring a decked area directly to the rear of the property and a modern summer house that offers great versatility as a home office or bar. To the front and side, a generous driveway provides off-street parking for up to three vehicles and leads to a single garage with convenient rear garden access.

LOCATION

Westbrook Crescent connects Westbrook Road and Bellasize Park as part of a popular residential area on the southerly side of Scalby Lane in Gilberdyke. The sister villages of Gilberdyke and Newport offer a desirable residential experience on the western edge of the East Riding. Often considered one cohesive community, they provide an exceptional quality of life distinguished by a friendly, village-scale atmosphere and expansive rural surroundings. Together, they offer a perfect environment for families and professionals who value the tranquillity of the countryside while remaining part of a vibrant local network.

A variety of local services ensure that residents enjoy a high standard of living with everyday essentials right on the doorstep. The villages are well-equipped with a local supermarket, independent shops, and traditional pubs. For more extensive retail and leisure needs, the comprehensive amenities of Brough or Howden are just a short drive away, offering a wider array of supermarkets, fitness facilities, and professional services, providing a perfect balance of village peace and modern convenience.

The community is served by two well-regarded primary schools: Gilberdyke Primary School and Newport Primary School. For secondary education, the area is perfectly positioned for access to the highly regarded South Hunsley School and Sixth Form College in Melton or the well-respected Howden School. Furthermore, additional independent schooling options are within easy reach, ensuring diverse academic pathways for all students.

Gilberdyke and Newport provide superb regional connectivity, making them some of the best-connected rural locations in the county. The villages sit immediately adjacent to the M62 corridor, providing a direct link to Hull, Leeds, and the national motorway network. Furthermore, Gilberdyke features its own railway station which lies only 0.4 miles from the property and offers regular services to Hull, Leeds, Doncaster, and Manchester – a significant advantage for professional commuters.

Accessibility to key destinations includes:

- Howden: Approx. 5 miles
- Beverley: Approx. 16 miles
- Hull City Centre: Approx. 18 miles
- York: Approx. 22 miles
- Leeds: Approx. 40 miles

Beyond the immediate vicinity, the location offers immediate access to the East Riding countryside. Positioned within the fertile landscapes, the area is a haven for outdoor enthusiasts. This blend of community spirit and strategic transport links truly encapsulates the best of East Yorkshire life.
