

BRENNAN

BESPOKE

86 Broadway, Kettering, NN15 6DF

£325,000

3

1

1

D

Situated on the popular Broadway in Kettering, this attractive bay-fronted three-bedroom terraced home offers spacious and versatile accommodation, combining character features with practical living space ideal for families, first-time buyers or those looking to upsize. Perfectly positioned, the property is within walking distance of Kettering town centre and the train station, making it an excellent choice for commuters and those seeking convenient access to local amenities.

Upon entering the property, you are welcomed by a bright entrance hallway that leads through to the impressive open-plan lounge/diner. This generous reception space provides ample room for both relaxing and entertaining, with the bay window to the front allowing natural light to flood the room while adding character and charm. The open layout creates a sociable atmosphere, perfect for modern family living. Continuing through the property, you will find a spacious kitchen/breakfast room at the rear. Offering a range of storage units, generous worktop

