Cranley Gardens, SW7

This top-floor two-bedroom apartment provides modern and generously proportioned living accommodation, featuring wooden flooring throughout and a mezzanine area. Situated at one of South Kensington's most prestigious addresses, the property combines contemporary style with an exceptional location.

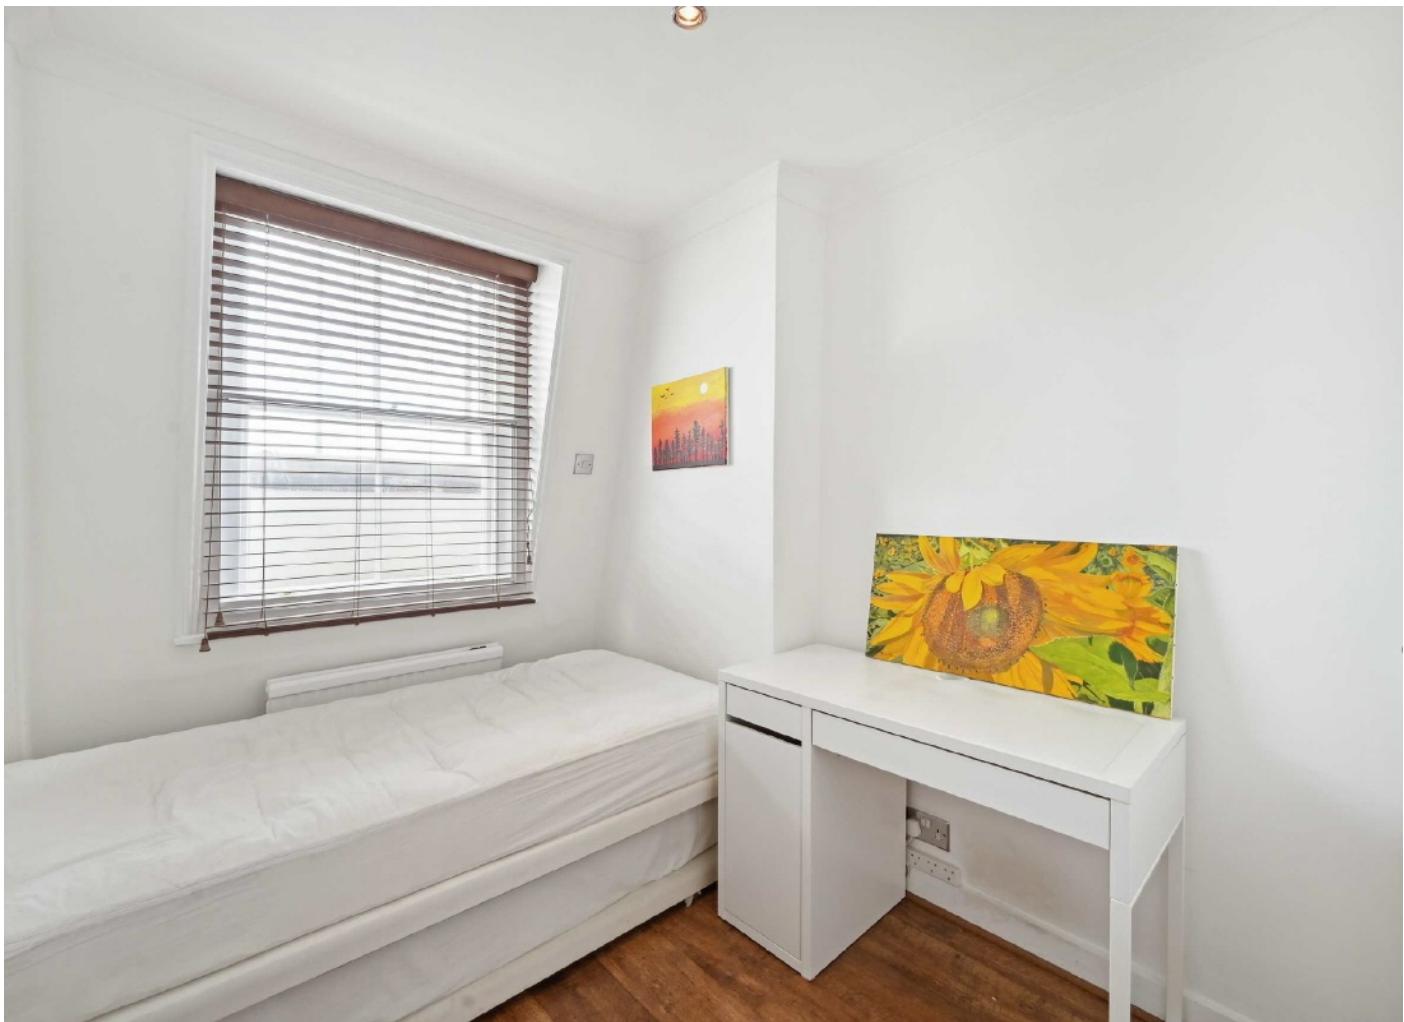

The landing, spacious enough to accommodate a seating or dining area, opens into a reception room distinguished by an impressive vaulted ceiling with exposed beams and a mezzanine level providing access to the roof (non-demised). The property further comprises a separate kitchen fitted with modern appliances, two double bedrooms with integrated storage, and a family bathroom. Finished with wooden flooring throughout, the apartment benefits from abundant natural light in every room, enhanced by skylights.

Cranley Gardens extends between Old Brompton Road and Fulham Road, offering convenient access to South Kensington and Gloucester Road Underground Stations.
