Set on a quiet cul-de-sac, this beautifully presented Victorian semi-detached home offers space, flexibility and charm - ideal for professional couples or young families ready for their next chapter.

The ground floor features a bright open-plan living/dining room with bay window, high ceilings and feature fireplace, complemented by bespoke storage and a dedicated work-from-home station. To the rear, the kitchen provides ample storage and flows into a separate utility room - a rare addition for a home of this era. Doors open onto a private west-facing garden, perfect for sunny afternoons and relaxed evenings. A bright family bathroom with window and jacuzzi bath completes the level.

Upstairs are three well-proportioned bedrooms, including a principal with fitted wardrobes, plus a stylish skylit wet room. The top floor offers a generous double with dormer windows and useful eaves storage, creating a peaceful retreat.

Conveniently located near East Croydon railway station and West Croydon railway station, with Wandle Park and Croydon town centre close by, the home balances tranquillity with excellent connectivity.
