

£1,500

20 Kennet Street, Reading, RG1 4AQ

A well-presented two-bedroom, two-bathroom apartment ideally situated on the edge of Reading town centre, less than one mile from the mainline train station.

Located on the first floor and conveniently accessed via a lift, this apartment benefits from undercroft parking and a private balcony.

Recently redecorated throughout, it offers bright and modern living, ready for immediate occupation.

The property is perfectly suited to professionals and young families alike, with excellent access to local amenities, including nearby shops and The Oracle shopping centre.

Offered vacant and available straight away – early enquiries are highly recommended to avoid disappointment.

