This charming semi detached house has been carefully designed to accommodate all the needs of the modern home owner. The separate sitting room will beckon in the evenings where one can relax in front of the television. In line with much needed requirements there are two bedrooms upstairs with a family bathroom. The driveway parking for two cars is conveniently positioned for off street parking. This appealing development is positioned within the village of Godshill with picturesque rural surroundings and a 'postcard perfect' village centre with convenience store, buses and some wonderful establishments to eat and drink. The village sits between the Island's principal town of Newport and the popular coastal town of Shanklin. Newport town is home to the most extensive range of retail shops, services and facilities found anywhere on the Island and these will be a short car journey away. A network of footpaths and bridleways navigate the rural surroundings connecting to other well-trod routes, villages and towns.
