8 Yew Tree House Wheel Lane, Westfield, East Sussex TN35 4SG
£180,000

Set in a rural lane location surrounded by fields and vineyards, whilst being a short drive to the Market Town of Battle with a mainline station to London Charing Cross, is this stunning first floor apartment forming part of a period country house with stunning far reaching views over the neighbouring vineyards and countryside. Ideal for anyone looking for the ease of downsizing to a more manageable property, a superb second home or lock up and leave. The property dates from 1862 which was then part of the Bowes Lyon estate and later owned by the 15th Earl of Strathmore and Kinghorne, brother of the Queen mother. Converted in 1983 this unique property offers the convenience of apartment living with the rural idyll of country life. The apartment has a light and airy feel throughout due to the high ceilings and traditional windows, making the most of being positioned with views over the vineyards. The accommodation comprises an entrance hall, sitting/dining room with bay window, two bedrooms, a well appointed shower room and newly appointed kitchen. Outside there are mature well maintained communal gardens, residences parking and space for a private timber shed/workshop. Further benefits include a share of the freehold, use of a residents guest room and being available chain free.
