Positioned on the top floor of the ever-popular “The Quays” development on Dock Road in Tilbury, this stylish two bedroom apartment delivers modern living with a commuter-friendly address and the kind of natural light that makes every photo look filter-free.

Perfectly placed just 0.3 miles from Tilbury Town railway station, with direct services into London Fenchurch Street, this is a home that keeps your morning routine simple and your evenings flexible.

Built in 2019, the apartment forms part of a contemporary and well-maintained development and is offered with an impressive 242 years remaining on the lease — providing genuine long-term security and peace of mind. In property terms, that's what we call future-proofed.

Inside, the inviting entrance hallway features a secure intercom entry system, setting the tone for the well cared for interiors beyond. The standout space is the generous open plan lounge/kitchen/diner — bright, sociable and perfectly designed for modern life. Whether it's dinner with friends, working from home or a quiet night in, this space adapts effortlessly. The Juliette balcony overlooks the communal garden, drawing in plenty of natural light and adding that all-important sense of openness.

Both bedrooms are great sizes, offering flexibility for sharers, guests or a dedicated home office setup. The bathroom is sleek, modern and well appointed, completing the apartment with a clean, contemporary finish.

Externally, practicality meets convenience with a covered and gated parking space accessed via fob entry — secure, private and hassle-free. The well maintained communal garden provides a pleasant outdoor setting, ideal for a moment of calm at the end of a busy day.

Stylish, secure and superbly located, this top floor apartment is the definition of easy living — a smart move for first-time buyers, downsizers or investors who appreciate strong transport links and modern design.

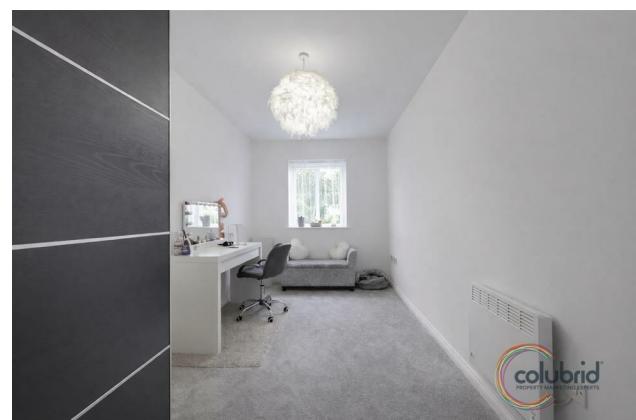

Area Guide – Tilbury
