"This house is so special to us, we have loved living here. People often comment on how relaxing and homely the space feels. We love our fire place for cosy winter nights and the wooden floors give the house character and an aged feel. A lot of time and energy has been put into the garden to transform it. The well established banana trees are incredible and produce real bananas (albeit tiny). In the summer, it's a real suntrap. We have also been very lucky to have had such amazing neighbours."
