A modern and stylish terraced house of generous proportions! This well presented property offers open plan living to the ground floor together with three spacious bedrooms, the master being ensuite, plus bathroom all spread over the upper floors. Having been constructed in 2019, the house offers every refinement including quality fixtures and fittings, double glazing, sprinkler system, full insulation and gas central heating. Outside is parking for two vehicles and an enclosed garden. This popular residential estate has proved to be popular for all age groups, being level and so convenient for Abergele town centre, doctors, the beach and A55 Expressway.
