Land

Amounting to 85 acres, or thereabouts, the land comprises good quality grazing and mowing land, mainly located in the valley bottom comprising 7 enclosures together with a large area known as 'Coed y Brenin' or 'Kings Wood' which includes grazing land, woodland and an undeveloped enclosed hill providing a fantastic and varied wildlife habitat.

There is an enclosed ancient oak woodland, blue bell woods and an elevated field with the most fantastic views over the Beacons and the Usk valley.

On Coed Y Brenin is a scheduled monument known as Coed Y Brenin enclosure which has been described by Cadw as 'an earthwork/stone-built enclosure... likely to date to the Iron Age..... The monument is of National importance'.

Natural streams flow through the land which includes a small seasonal waterfall.

The property hosts an abundance of bird and wildlife.

There are 418 registered sheep grazing hill rights on the adjacent mountain. The property has its own, private gated access onto this mountain, although the vendors temporarily fenced across this. Re-opening would provide private access ideal for those who wish to walk or ride on the open mountain.

There are no entitlements included with this property.
