The Property

An incredibly rare opportunity to acquire this detached family home located along this cul-de-sac of just four detached dwellings.

Enjoying a pleasant and secluded garden plot backing on to All Saints Church, the property comes to the market for the first time in over two decades offering sizeable accommodation over two floors.

The ground floor living space offers ample and versatile accommodation with the use of three sizeable reception rooms, a large entrance hall, cloakroom and kitchen/breakfast room with access to the rear garden.

On the first floor and accessible from the main landing, are four large double bedrooms with the main bedroom being accompanied by an en-suite shower room and built wardrobes. Furthermore there is a family bathroom with three-piece suite.

Externally, the property benefits from ample off-street driveway parking to the front of the detached double garage. A timber gated side access leads to the mature and large rear garden, which is enclosed by a number of trees and with well stocked borders.

For full appreciation of its position, accommodation and location; an early viewing is highly advised.
