An opportunity to acquire a deceptively large and free-flowing, three-bedroom detached home on the highly sought after Hensington Gate development, located just a short distance from schools and the amenities of central Woodstock.

On the ground floor there is an entrance hall that leads to the main reception room and adjoining dining room. A sunroom has been added in more recent years where glazed windows and a sliding door frame the garden and promote the flow of natural light from its south-west facing rear aspect. The kitchen can be found to the left of the plan along with a handy utility area. The property also offers a ground floor study and shower room for added convenience. On the first floor there are three bedrooms, including the principal bedroom and a family bathroom. The property is presented in a neutral palette throughout and has been meticulously maintained whilst offering scope to reconfigure or extend (subject to necessary consents).

Outside there is a beautifully maintained south-west facing rear garden with lawn and patio areas. The property further benefits from a double length garage and driveway parking.
