3 2 1

An entrance hall serves to all of the downstairs accommodation starting with a very spacious and comfortable lounge diner with an large insulated conservatory found to rear giving additional versatile space. A contemporary kitchen offers a wide range of storage units and worktop space as well as space for appliances and leads to a boot room giving space for shoes and coats as well as having a full sized sink handy for washing muddy footwear and animals . A downstairs bedroom is found to the front of the property which can serve for a number of different purposes and is currently being used as an office. A modernised shower room completes the ground floor accommodation. Upstairs, the landing serves two large double bedrooms with built in storage cupboards and a second shower room offers further convenience.
