Agents note: 'Edgehill Cottage' and its neighbour are a pair of semi-detached cottages that formed part of a small Hamlet which grew around the fording place across the River Stour at Riddlesford in the early 19th Century. The cottage is recognised by the Local Council as being worthy of being served for future generations, but are not in a Conservation areas and not a Listed Building.

The entrance has a storm canopy and opens into the entrance lobby and hall with stairs to the first floor. There is an adjacent downstairs cloakroom and door leading through to the living room.

The living room has a front aspect window and working fireplace. There is a linking archway to the dining room with French doors to the conservatory and door to the kitchen.

The conservatory has low brick built walls with double glazed units over and a glass roof with French doors to the rear garden.

The kitchen has a matching range of wall and floor mounted cupboard units with roll edge work tops and tiled surrounds. Inset ceramic sink. Freestanding Range style cooker with hood over. Space and plumbing for washing machine and dish washer. Cupboard housing a 'Potterton' gas combi boiler serving the heating and domestic hot water.

First floor landing.

The master bedroom has a rear aspect window and ensuite bathroom. There are a further three bedrooms and a family shower room.

The front garden is well stocked and has a gravel driveway for off road parking. A further covered gravel walk way leads to the enclosed rear garden with a decked area and lawns.
