Gary Hammond is pleased to offer an outstanding opportunity to acquire a distinctive double-fronted commercial property, which is currently presented as a single unit but readily divisible to separate units, prominently located on a bustling High Street in Buckinghamshire. Offered for sale with a guide price of £320,000, this property presents a unique blend of historical charm and modern functionality, making it an attractive proposition.

This characterful building is Grade II listed and was extensively refurbished in 2000, boasting a beautifully finished interior and exterior, complete with exposed timbers that add significant appeal. Modern upgrades include efficient lighting and air conditioning, ensuring a comfortable and productive environment. A truly iconic feature, the old classic red petrol pumps at the front have endeared many passers-by, creating a memorable landmark and drawing attention to the premises.

Currently configured as offices under Class E business use, the property offers a substantial usable footprint of close to 1,000 sq ft. Its versatile layout includes three reception areas, board room, and a kitchen, plus access to bathrooms and utilities, providing ample space for a variety of business operations. Furthermore, there is significant potential for a change of use to residential, subject to obtaining the necessary planning permissions, offering flexibility for future development.

The property enjoys a 999 year lease on units 66 & 68 from the year 2000 with the option to acquire 64A currently on a short lease until 2041 which could then be extended.

Guide Price: £320,000 for combined 66 & 68 High Street (64A by negotiation).

Location

THE NEIGHBOURHOOD

The location is particularly advantageous. The vibrant High Street enjoys a rich association with the renowned author Roald Dahl and the popular Roald Dahl Museum, which consistently generates strong footfall past the property. This ensures excellent visibility and exposure for any business operating from this prime position.

Practical amenities are also well catered for. To the rear of the property, there is the invaluable benefit of allocated parking, a significant advantage in a High Street location. Additionally, a small courtyard garden and convenient rear access enhance the property's functionality and appeal. This combination of prominent High Street presence, characterful interior, modern facilities, and practical parking makes this an exceptional commercial offering. 5 minute walk from the Chiltern Line (London Marylebone).

This property represents a rare chance to own a piece of local heritage with considerable commercial and residential potential. Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the unique qualities and opportunities this Buckinghamshire gem presents.
