ABOUT THE PROPERTY

A beautifully extended and renovated six bedroom family home, ideally situated in a sought after location between Kentish Town and Tufnell Park. This wonderful family home has been tastefully designed and thoughtfully finished throughout, providing a fantastic turnkey property for buyers seeking an exceptional combination of location, layout and condition.

Raveley Street is ideally positioned for a wide variety of local amenities. The open expanses of Hampstead Heath are also within walking distance, providing a wonderful escape from the city. The area is also well served by a number of highly regarded schools, including Eleanor Palmer Primary School, which is just a short walk away.
