Michael Court is situated on a leafy residential location on Oakfield, Sale and is named after Mona Michael who was a U.S. professor and humanitarian who conceived the idea of using poppies as a symbol of remembrance for those who served in World War. Michael Court has been carefully designed to provide the very best in comfort and convenience. The development is located around 100 meters from Washway Road and the main shopping area and medical centres that lie beyond, together with being close to public transport and the region's motorway networks, providing access into Manchester City centre and the surrounding Cheshire countryside. Sale is linked to the main waterway networks in the North West by the famous Bridgewater Canal on its route to Manchester from the mines at Worsley. The canal is one of the main attractions to Sale as it runs through the very heart of the town creating a waterside plaza with an Arts Centre and various restaurants offering a pleasant, relaxed environment. The canal is also home to Sale Cruising Club whilst Sale Waterpark provides a Nature Reserve, water-sports, fishing and large areas of paths and woods for walking or cycling.

It is a condition of purchase that all residents must meet the age requirements of 60 years.
