Nestled in the picturesque village of Turnditch, this charming detached house, known as The Old Post Office, offers a delightful blend of modern comfort and period character.

Upon entering, you are greeted by a charming lounge featuring a multi-burner stove, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere. The heart of the home is the expansive living kitchen/dining/snug area, complete with a range cooker, ideal for both everyday living and entertaining guests. Also downstairs there is an entrance hall and useful utility/pantry and cloakroom/W.C.

The property boasts three double bedrooms with the main bedroom having an en-suite, while the period-style bathroom adds a touch of elegance to the home.

Outside, the pleasant sunny gardens enjoys a brick outbuilding/workshop offering additional storage or workspace. The double-width driveway accommodates parking for three/four vehicles and there is also potential for garage space, subject to planning permission.

The Location

Turnditch is a charming village with two public houses, noted primary school and lovely old church. It is convenient for local villages including Idridgehay and Duffield plus towns providing an excellent range of amenities including Belper, Wirksworth and Ashbourne, the latter known as the Gateway to Dovedale and the famous Peak District National Park. Local activities include Carsington Water with its fishing and sailing. Allport Heights is close by, a very well known horizon.
