SITUATION

Situated within the heart of the old town of Hatherleigh. The town offers a traditional range of amenities including supermarket, shops, art gallery and cafe, together with post office and garage/supermarket. There are two public houses, a primary school, health centre, veterinary surgery and community market. There are various sporting facilities together with an excellent modern community hall. The larger town of Okehampton has an excellent range of shops and services, three supermarkets including a Waitrose and a range of locally and nationally owned shops and businesses. From Okehampton there is a popular train station which connects to Exeter and beyond, there is also direct access to the A30 dual carriageway providing a direct link west into Cornwall or east to the cathedral and university city of Exeter with its M5 motorway, main line rail and international air connections. The countryside around Hatherleigh is well known for its recreational and sporting facilities with fishing on the Torridge and walking and riding on the Tarka Trail and Granite Way. The North and South coasts of Devon and Cornwall are easily accessible with delightful beaches and attractive coastal scenery.

DESCRIPTION

A charming Grade II listed terrace cottage, located within the heart of Hatherleigh town. Within recent years the property has been significantly updated and improved, yet retains the charm and period features of a property of this age. These include beamed ceiling, exposed timbers and floorboards, together with an open fireplace. The property benefits from electric central heating and briefly comprises a small entrance lobby, opening to a cosy sitting room with open fire. Steps lead down to a country style kitchen and providing access to the rear. The first floor landing serves two bedrooms and there is a well fitted shower room. Across the courtyard at the rear (not owned) is a useful outbuilding, providing utility space and possible home office.
