Character, space & stunning Douglas Valley views

- Spacious 1,548 sq ft Victorian terrace
- Douglas Valley views to front
- Four spacious bedrooms
- West-facing rear yard & front garden
- Private & secluded road
- Fully certified loft conversion
- Level parking for two cars
- No onward chain

Rarely available and occupying a wonderfully peaceful position on a private, secluded road, this much-improved Victorian terrace offers an impressive 1,548 sq ft of living space, picturesque views towards the Douglas Valley and Bottling Wood, and the added rarity of a fully certified loft conversion creating a spacious and versatile fourth bedroom.

The property combines period character with modern family living and is offered with no onward chain. Further highlights include a modern combination boiler, gas central heating, a west-facing rear yard and excellent outdoor space to the front. Unlike many period properties of its type, this home benefits from a garden plot opposite further enhancing the property's setting and featuring level parking for two cars.

Perfectly positioned just a stone's throw from the scenic Haigh Hall, whilst remaining within easy reach of local shops, amenities, bars and cafés this characterful, spacious and unusually versatile home is located in a truly desirable setting — early viewing is essential.
