DESCRIPTION

Set in a peaceful location with a strong sense of community, this beautifully presented three-bedroom terraced home offers generous living space, character features and a lovely private garden.

Neutrally decorated throughout, the property provides a fresh and welcoming feel, giving the next owners the perfect opportunity to move straight in and make it their own. With excellent public transport links, nearby schools and local parks close by, it is well suited to families, couples and anyone looking for a home in a convenient yet quiet setting.

Inside, the property offers two spacious reception rooms, both filled with natural light thanks to large windows and high ceilings. The first reception room enjoys a pleasant outlook over the garden and features exposed brick detailing, adding warmth and character to the space. There is also useful under-stairs storage, keeping the room both practical and stylish.

The kitchen is bright and inviting, with natural light flowing through and a range cooker creating a great space for everyday cooking. A separate utility room adds further convenience.

Upstairs, there are three well-proportioned bedrooms. The main bedroom is a light and comfortable space with the added benefit of an en-suite toilet and sink. The second and third bedrooms are both generous rooms, with bedroom three also offering built-in wardrobes for excellent storage.

The family bathroom has been finished to a high standard and includes a large bath, rain shower and heated towel rail, creating a relaxing space with a touch of luxury.

Externally, the property benefits from a private garden, ideal for relaxing, entertaining or enjoying time outdoors. A garage provides secure parking or valuable additional storage.

The property has an EPC rating of D and falls within council tax band A.

Combining character, space and a convenient location, this charming home is a fantastic opportunity and is well worth viewing.
