The house is filled with natural light, enhanced by impressive ceiling heights, particularly within the principal reception rooms, which provide a great sense of volume and scale. The bedroom accommodation is centred around a generous principal suite occupying the first floor, complete with dressing area and en suite bathroom. Further bedrooms are situated on the lower ground floor, providing guest or family accommodation, each served by bathrooms.

The interiors showcase a refined use of materials including book-matched marble, elegant stone and timber flooring. This property offers a rare opportunity to acquire a turn-key home of exceptional quality in one of central London's most desirable settings. Wilton Crescent is one of London's most sought-after addresses, ideally positioned for the amenities of both Belgravia and Knightsbridge, including a wide selection of shops, restaurants and hotels
