LOCATION

The subjects are situated within Tannochside Business Park, which lies on the northern fringe of Uddingston within the North Lanarkshire Council Local Authority area.

Uddingston is a small town which lies to the south-east of Glasgow, approximately 7.5 miles from Glasgow City Centre, and which forms part of a larger continuous urban area with the neighbouring towns of Bothwell to the south and Bellshill to the east. The town centre of Uddingston, around one mile to the south of the property, provides a range of local retail and leisure amenities.

The Business Park benefits from excellent road links to the motorway network via Junction 4 of the M74 where it merges with the M73, the latter linking with the M8 also in relatively close proximity. The Business Park is also accessible by public transport with local bus services utilising Old Edinburgh Road approximately 0.5 miles to the south. The nearest train station lies within the main town centre area of Uddingston, approximately one mile to the south-west.

Tannochside is a modern Business Park containing an established mix of industrial and office properties with a broad spectrum of occupiers ranging from small local businesses up to national companies such as Sky, DPD and Whistl.

DESCRIPTION

Arranged over ground and first floors, the subjects comprise a substantial detached office building of steel frame construction with brick elevations surmounted by a pitched metal clad roof.

The property is laid out to provide a feature entrance/reception area at ground floor with predominantly open plan office accommodation at ground and first floors.

Externally, the premises lies within a large plot which contains an excellent car parking provision (approximately 45 spaces) as well as soft landscaping.

Internally, the offices benefit from raised floors, suspended ceilings, passenger lift, air handling system and WC accommodation.
