5 & 7 Old Dixton Road, Monmouth

This charming and truly unique four-bedroom semi-detached Grade II listed house is ideally located within easy reach of the town and its wealth of amenities. Originally two separate dwellings, the property has been sympathetically combined to create a spacious family home with an abundance of original features and character. To the back, is a beautifully maintained and mindfully designed garden which enjoys excellent levels of privacy. No onward chain.

Asking price of £560,000 Freehold

The property is traditionally constructed with a painted, rendered exterior inset wooden framed windows and doors set under a pitched, tiled roof. Internal features include a feature inglenook fireplace, exposed beams and stone work, moulded skirting boards, part glazed, ledged and braced doors, low voltage downlighters and a combination of quarry tiled, wooden boarded and carpeted flooring. Two gas fired boilers provide domestic hot water and heating to radiators throughout

The primary entrance to the property is from the side and through a solid wood front door with viewing panel into:
