This beautifully presented one-bedroom bungalow offers a perfect blend of comfort, style, and potential. With drawings in place for a straightforward conversion to a two-bedroom home, it's ideal for those looking to create additional space. Boasting an integrated garage, off-street parking, and generous storage including a double porch, the property provides practicality alongside charm.

Inside, a spacious lounge with solid wood flooring, many windows providing ample natural light, and a log-burning stove flows seamlessly into a dining area featuring an Art Deco gas fireplace. The fitted kitchen impresses with solid wood units, granite worktops, a Belfast sink, range-style cooker, and built-in dishwasher.

The bungalow also includes a double bedroom with fitted storage, a three-piece bathroom with underfloor heating, and a rear conservatory/utility space that opens onto a private, west-facing, low-maintenance garden.

Ideally situated close to Arnold Hill Academy, Mapperley Top, local parks, Arnold town centre, and bus routes to Nottingham city centre (approx. 15 minutes), this home perfectly combines convenience with potential.
